

CORINA BARRY, 29

August 23, 2010 – Omaha, NE

Corina was shot twice in the head by her boyfriend, Carlos Johnson, in their home. After shooting Corina, Johnson took his own life. The couple was found in an upstairs bedroom. Corina and Johnson had been dating for nine years. Over the years, Corina expressed fear of Johnson and even filed for a restraining order against him after he beat her and dragged her by the hair in 2003. She eventually withdrew the request. But as the years passed, Corina was ready to move on.

She wanted marriage and kids, and Johnson did not.
