

EDITH ANN MOORE, 46

May 30, 2006 – Omaha, NE

Edith Ann Moore of Council Bluffs was reported missing on May 29, 2006 after she failed to report to work. Her boyfriend, James Dragon, called the police the following day to report that there was something in his Omaha home they would want to see.

Edith Ann was found shot to death in the basement of Dragon's home. She had been shot in the back. The couple had been dating for six years after they met on the internet. Edith and Dragon were not dating at the time of her death. There were suspicions that Dragon was stalking Edith. Dragon pled guilty to second-degree murder and was sentenced to 50 years to life.
