

MARY GRAYER, 53

July 23, 2010 – Omaha, NE

Mary Grayer, a mother of two sons and grandmother of seven grandchildren, was found unconscious in the side yard of her home. She had been badly beaten by her boyfriend, Larry Ebberson. Mary was immediately taken to the hospital where she remained in the intensive care unit until her death a week later after the assault. She died from a head injury, the trauma her brain suffered as a result of the beating. Ebberson, who had a violent past, was sentenced 10-15 years in prison for manslaughter.
